Proceedings Brought Against Chesapeake and Ohio.

FIRST CASE OF THE KIND

Process Made Returnable June 15th When the Corporation Commission Will Hear the Matter-Many Charters Granted.

As forecast by The Times-Dispatch, the firm of Brown & Loving yesterday instituted proceedings before the Corporation Commission against the Cheanpeake and Ohio Railway Company because of alleged discrimination in rates by that company against shippers on other lines of railway. The complaint is that of E. S. Taylor & Co., of Prospect, Va., and the Btamford Manufacturing Company, of Lynchburg, vs. the Chesapeake, and Ohio. The Stamford Company,'s plant' is on the Southern Railway, near Lynchburg, and that of Taylor & Co. not far from the same city, and on the same line of railway. The two firms are engaged in the purchase, sale and manufacture of tan bark and its products, lumber, etc., and claim that the Chesapeake and Ohio Company offers similar industries and firms preferent artes on such freights from 60 to 100 near similar industries and firms preferential rates on such freights from 50 to 100 per cent, lower than those offered industries on other roads.

Bailiff Williams, of the commission, Bailist Williams, of the commission, served the process of the commission on President George W. Stevens, of the railway company. It is made returnable June 15th, at which time the matter will come up for further hearing under the statutes recently enacted for carrying into effect the work of the commission. This is the first case involving rates that has come before the new commission.

A number of charters were granted lyesterday by the commission, among them the following: The Newton Floral Company, of Norfolk, a commercial corporation which proposes to carry on a business in flowers and plants.

The Tanner's Creek Social Club, of Norfolk county, was also incorporated, with L. W. Bright, J. M. Thomas, Samuel Bray, Alexander Morris, R. C. Smith, E. A. Portlock, Jeffrey Keeling and others as corporators. The maximum capital stock is $25,000.

as corporators. stock is $25,000.

The J. S. Moore's Sons Company, Incorporated, headquarters and chief place of business at Eighteenth and Main Streets, Richmond, Va.; grocery business; maximum capital, $25,000.

mum capital, $25,000.

The Newport News Social and Athletic Club. of Newport News, Va., was incorporated Monday, with J. M. Walsh, J. J. Thomas and Raleigh Norsworthy as corporators. Capital not stated.

Mere memoranda of these charters were filed with the commission. The charters will be returned for recordation later. At present the commission has no facilities for recording charters.

Army of Idle is Augmented by Some 8.000 Workmen.

B,000 Workmen,

(B) Associated Press.)

PHILADELPHIA, June 2—The strike of the textile workers of Philadelphia for a 55-hour week spread te-day to the hostery mills, tieing up the textile industry tighter than it has been since the great suspension was haugurated. Pully $400 persons ioned the already large army of idle workers. Most of these were women and children employed in the hosdery mills in the Kensington district. These workers are organized, but they decided to join the ranks of the unionist in other branches of the textile trade when they say the imagnitude of the movement for a shorter week.

It was given out by the executive board of the textile workers are organized that ten additional firms had agreed to give their employees the 55-hour week. This makes fifty eight firms that had conceded the demands. It is estimated that upwards of 20,000 persons are now working on the conditions demanded by the unions.
